

Collegiate Quints Entering Into 'Do-Or-Die' Stage

Kentucky's Cats To Test Win Streak Of Auburn

By FRED DOWN

United Press International

Auburn may clear the way for an unbeaten campaign and Kansas State and Texas Christian can clinch NCAA tournament berths tonight when the college basketball season enters the "do or die" stage.

Virtually all the top-ranked teams will be in action but the stakes will be highest at Lexington, Ky., where Auburn puts its 30-game winning streak on the line against mighty Kentucky. Kentucky, the nation's third-ranked team, has lost only six games at home in the last 17 years.

Auburn has only two games remaining in the path of an unbeaten season if it tops Kentucky tonight—and it could wind up as the national champion without appearing in any tournament. The Tigers are barred from post-season tournaments this year because of an NCAA ruling.

Kentucky Tough At Home

Kentucky (20-2) would just about lock up an NCAA tournament berth with a victory tonight. The Wildcats were beaten only by Vanderbilt and Mississippi State. No Southeastern Conference rival has beaten Kentucky at Lexington since Jan. 8, 1955 when Georgia Tech turned the trick.

Two more berths in the NCAA may be filled tonight if everything goes well for Kansas State and Texas Christian. Kansas State, second-ranked nationally, can clinch the Big Eight bid if it wins and Colorado (6-3) loses to Iowa State. Texas Christian, ranked No. 11, can clinch the Southwest Conference bid if it wins and Southern Methodist bows to Texas Tech.

North Carolina, the nation's No. 1 team, appears to have an easy opponent in Maryland, fourth-ranked Cincinnati meets Wichita, fifth-ranked North Carolina State takes on somewhat deflated Villanova, seventh-ranked Michigan State plays Purdue, eighth-ranked St. Louis faces Houston and 12th-ranked Bradley faces Tulsa in other top slots.

Auburn Slight Underdog

Marquette, ranked 15th and already in the NCAA tournament, meets Xavier and St. Bonaventure, ranked 18th and a National Invitation Tournament entrant, plays Marshall in other games.

Auburn, which won 11 straight to close last season and has won 19 in a row this season, is sixth-ranked in the country but probably will be a slight underdog against the third-ranked Wildcats of coach Adolph Rupp.

Auburn, however, has compiled an amazing .492 per cent shooting average for the season and whipped Mississippi State, another Southeastern Conference power, by 31 points. Mississippi State topped Kentucky, 66-58, at Starkville, Miss.

No matter what happens the Wildcats are likely to go to the NCAA tournament because of Auburn's ineligibility and anti-integration policies which are expected to eliminate Mississippi State from consideration.

A line on still another NCAA entrant should be forthcoming when Princeton and Dartmouth meet in the first of two back-to-back games between the Ivy League rulers. Each is 9-0 for the season. The teams meet again next Friday night.

Three Teams Tie For Ladies' Lead

Pyrofax Gas tied Capital and Frank's Team for first place in the Ladies City Bowling League by shutting out Diamonds on the Diamond lanes. Capital, meanwhile, defeated Old Exports, 2-1, and Frank's topped Old Germans by the same score.

Kay Leighty sparked the Gasers with a 185 game and 500 set, although Mary Harley of Capital copped game honors for the week with 207.

Fullmer Asks For Shot At Middle Title

NEW YORK (UPI)—Ex-champion Gene Fullmer, who beat blond Will Greaves again Friday night, with an injured right hand, asked all boxing commissions to day to vacate the middleweight crown and give him another shot at it.

Now boasting nine straight victories on the comeback trail, Fullmer petitioned the National Boxing Association and the New York State Athletic Commission to vacate Sugar Ray Robinson's 160-pound title if he signs to challenge Archie Moore for the light heavyweight crown.

At the same time, muscular Gene cancelled a fight with Paul Pender at Boston, March 17, to give his injured hand time to heal properly.

Although X-rays at Polytechnic Hospital today disclosed no fracture, Dr. A. L. Lichman said a hemorrhage had caused "free fluid" in the middle-finger knuckle joint and he put the hand in a splint. Gene must wear the splint for a week or 10 days.

Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, injured the hand in the second round of his return bout with Canadian champion Graves at Madison Square Garden Friday night, when he hit Wilf of Edmonton, Alberta, on an elbow.

Rallies To Win
Despite the pain and swelling, Fullmer insisted on continuing the bout and he came from behind in the second half to win a majority decision that snapped Graves' winning string at 13 bouts.

Judge Nick Gamboli called it a draw after giving eight five rounds and five points. But Judge Jack Gordon favored Fullmer six rounds to four, and referee Harry Kessler agreed, 5-4-1, as did the United Press International.

Fullmer, who has won 11 straight to close last season and has won 19 in a row this season, is sixth-ranked in the country but probably will be a slight underdog against the third-ranked Wildcats of coach Adolph Rupp.

Alco Sails Over Sentinels Comeback Campers Force County Playoff, Win, 59-46

By JIM DAY

Times Scholarships Sports Editor

Allegany High's final intra-city clash with arch-rival Fort Hill on the small Campbell County court may have been the Alco's long basketball history.

The Campers, an up-and-down ball club for more than half the season, are definitely in high gear now following last night's surprisingly easy 59-46 victory over the Sentinels before a jammed-packed, standing-room-only throng at Allegany.

Alco Ties Up County Chase

In Charge Throughout
Completely in charge throughout the night, the hoopers of coach Chet Payne now have a pressure-packed weekend facing them with last night's triumph forcing a playoff for the Class A honors and a bid for the right to represent the county in the District I tournament at North Hagerstown next month.

Bob Pence, supervisor of physical education for Allegany County, and the state tournament director, announced that the Campers and Sentinels will play either Thursday or Saturday of next week at Beall High School to determine the champion. State rules say that the district representatives must be decided by the end of the month.

Thus, Alco will be taking on both city rivals on consecutive nights. The Campers' league with LaSalle in their return game Friday on the SS. Peter and Paul boards. They threw the city race into a scramble by whipping the Red Raiders and, if gaining a split with LaSalle, will share the city honors in a three-way knoll. LaSalle and Fort Hill, last year's co-champs, also split their two games this season.

Last night was an evening of surprises as Beall upset Mt. Savage, 71-62, in Froberg and Valley's WML kings came through in their final game of the circuit by whipping Bruce, 76-61, at Detmold. Only the postponed game between Fort Hill and Mt. Savage remains on the loop slate.

Lander Point King
George Lander also gave Valley the league scoring king as the veteran Black Knight guard landed the nets for 26 points to finish with 189 for the campaign. Bill Willson of Bruce was unable to play because of illness and finished second with 170 markers for nine games. Willson had been in front by seven tallies.

It was apparent last night the Sentinels didn't have it and the Campers were not to be denied. Fort Hill staged a lack-lustre performance, was outshouted, outshot and outrebounced and never posed a serious threat to its cross-town rival despite a third-quarter performance in which the Sentinels equalled their entire first-half output with 13 points while the Campers could get but six—all by guard Gary Shook.

Only three times, the last when Alco's reserves were on duty, did the Hilltoppers get back-to-back fielders. And, but for a strong second-half performance by forward Charles Robinson, the Campers might have romped to an even easier triumph. Robinson, who wound up with 24 points, got 21 of the tallies after intermission and accounted for all but 13 of his mates' production for the last 16 minutes.

The Campers, who now have clipped off five straight triumphs and show a 10-8 log for the campaign, clicked for a 418 per cent, from the floor as 23 of 35 shots found the range. The Red Raiders, held to only five goals in the first half, managed but 16 goals in 37 attempts for a .281 mark.

Shook, Gaffney Star
Gary Shook carried the offensive for Alco by finishing as the game's top scorer with 25 points while sophomore center Bob Horton also connected four times for Alco in the last period and tossed in a free throw for nine of his 15 tallies. Shook's 11 firings and meshed five of nine final fielder gave Allegany its free throws. Gaffney cleared the biggest lead of the night at 57-36, boards 18 times with 14 of his. A pair of fouls by Robinson and swipes coming under the Red Raiders' basket. Alco had a 37-30 rebounding edge with Robinson grabbing eight for the Sentinels and White.

The Sentinels, who had run up their highest scoring totals of the season previously by whipping title by winning. They lost Lewis Bruce, 82-66, and Beall, 74-39, at 3:15 of the third quarter and were able to hold Alco to a draw 10-10 in the final heat on but once. After Shook opened the game with the first of his 25, jumper shot for the Red Raiders to make it 2-2.

A penalty toss by Shook made 3-2 and the Campers were off and running, racking up a quick 9-2 edge on buckets by Shook and Gary Frisby and two charity tosses by Jerry Horton.

The Campers were to move in front by ten points near the end of the first period when Frisby's quint moved out in front in the 15-5 margin. The Sentinels' John DeLaGrange tossed in a gift throw just before the whistle to make it 15-6.

The Campers soon doubled the lead. "Hank" Winner caged 17 points, the second period at 22-11 points. Clifton "Tippy" Metts added 13, and Jim Chappell connected for 14 of the Sentinels' total.

Alco, on fielders by Jim O'Neal, Gaffney and Shook reeled off six straight points before Robinson's twin-pointer. They slammed home six more on free throws by Horton and Shook and a last-second goal by Shook who dribbled through the entire Sentinel team for a layup to give Alco a 19-point edge, 32-13, at the half.

Fort Hill made its best bid in the third heat but Shook managed to keep the Campers in front by hitting for two goals and a pair of penalty tosses to account for all of the Blue and White's points. Alco's edge was trimmed to 38-26 as DeLaGrange bucketed a pair. Robinson came up with seven tallies on two twin-pointers and three charity tosses and Henry added a goal.

The Red Raiders tallied 20 markers in the final heat but didn't endanger the bulge of Alco as the Campers slammed home 21 points. Robinson, finishing with four straight fielders, added six from the 15-foot line to account for 14 of the Sentinels' total.

Biggest Lead At 57-36
Horton also connected four times for Alco in the last period and tossed in a free throw for nine of his 15 tallies. Shook's 11 firings and meshed five of nine final fielder gave Allegany its free throws. Gaffney cleared the biggest lead of the night at 57-36, boards 18 times with 14 of his. tributed 12. Richard Wilson and Robert Grove were high for Bruce with 14 and 13.

Beall Spills Indians
Beall's Mountaineers staged an upset by defeating Mt. Savage, who led in the game only once, at 41-40, in the third period. The score was knotted at 46-46 before a free throw by the Frostburgers' Ed Finn made it 47-46, and gave coach "Ebbie" Finzel's quint the lead for keeps.

Chester Carter, Beall center, racked up 28 points, top performance in the circuit last night. Al Kamauff and Jim Evans with 14, and Jim Hansel with 10, also tallied in double digits for the victors. Fay Olfert, Leroy Morris, and Jack Lowery led the Mt. Savage assault with 18, 15 and 13 markers.

Three of the matches rolled in the B&O CTP Bowling League were decided by shutout margins as Signal Department blanked Bolt and Forge, 7-3 Machinists zeroed Relief Train, and AB Shop whitewashed Timesavers.

In other games rolled on the Savoy lanes, Passenger Station edged Diesel, Freight House nipped 11-7 Machinists, and Bolt and Forge Machinists downed Ready Track, all by 2-1 scores.

Leading their teams in scoring were Melvin Lease Sr., 151-380, Signal Dept.; George Urey, 174-472, 7-3 Machinists; Warren Jones, 162-426, Relief Train; Robert Apple, 174, Arthur Redhead, 436, AB Shop; Grant Zollner, 160-397, Timesavers; Chancey Teets, 160, John Pike, 467, Passenger Station; Yogan Yergan, 188-470, Diesel; Sunny Jack, 223, Robert Richards, 451, Freight House; Harold Har, 199-456, 11-7 Mach.; Bill Gage, 158-408, Bolt and Forge Mach.; and Earl Chaney, 146-401, Ready Track.

ard of Thanks
We wish to express our sincere thanks to all those who helped us during the death of our husband and father, Mr. A. Wilhelm. We also wish to thank the pallbearers, those who sent flowers, and all who were present at the funeral. We are grateful to all who helped us in any way. Sincerely, MRS. GEORGE WILHELM AND FAMILY.

Memorial
In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. A. Wilhelm, who passed away 21 years ago today. Wonderful mother, woman and aid, as who was better. God never made a woman like her. She was a true mother in a million. That mother was just in your judgment always right, and she was liberal, ever upright, and she was a friend to all who loved her. We miss her very much. Sincerely, MRS. A. WILHELM AND FAMILY.

Wheat Laden Railway Cars Leave Tracks

Cumberland Crews Assist In Clearing Hancock Right-of-Way

An eastbound Western Maryland Railway freight train derailed today in Hancock in front of the station.

Twenty-six cars loaded with wheat overturned and landed the old C&O Canal, which parallels the tracks in that area. One was injured, but heavy damage was caused to the roadbed and traffic was tied up on the single-line track connecting Cumberland and Hagerstown.

The WM is using the B&O tracks between Green Ridge and Cherry Run as a detour pending the clearing up of the wreckage and restoration of the trackage.

The cars which left the rails were in the middle of a 115-car train. They were part of a 75-car consignment of wheat from Buffalo, N. Y., picked up by the Western Maryland at Connellyville, Pa. The shipment was en route to Baltimore for export.

The wreck is believed to have been caused by a defective wheel truck on one of the cars.

The track bisects Hancock and is between busy U.S. 40 and the Potomac River.

Wreck crews from Hagerstown and Cumberland were clearing the debris from the right-of-way, but railroad officials were unable to say when the line would be in operation again.

Relief Due From Frigid Weather Here

The frigid weather of the past few days is scheduled to abate tonight and tomorrow will be warmer.

The forecast calls for fair and not as cold tonight and fair and warmer tomorrow with temperatures between 35 and 40 degrees. Monday is expected to see rising temperatures and increasing cloudiness.

Diminishing winds are listed for tonight and tomorrow. The brisk winds up to 30 miles an hour made it seem even colder than the temperatures recorded during the frigid spell.

Clear blue skies and bright sunshine provided pleasant weather today, even though the temperatures were below freezing. In Oakland the temperature was down to nine degrees today. The highest recording was 13 degrees yesterday afternoon in the Garrett area.

Cumberland had a low of 16 degrees and at noon it was 30 degrees. Frostburg had a low of eight degrees and a high of 22 degrees yesterday afternoon.

Deep Creek Boaters Get Consideration

A subcommittee of the House Ways and Means Committee which has been holding hearings on a proposal to license and regulate all motorboats in the state made a concession to boat owners on Deep Creek Lake.

Del. William Walsh (D-Allegany) asked the subcommittee to provide that these boat owners be required only the $5 fee planned in the measure. For many years the Deep Creek Lake boaters have paid a $3 annual registration fee to the State Department of Game and Inland Fish.

The game department would collect these fees and keep the $3 as in the past. Walsh said the way the act was drawn the Deep Creek boaters would have been paying $8 and this would amount to double taxation.

Social Security Books Available

"Facts About the Old-Age and Survivors Insurance Trust Fund and the Disability Insurance Trust Fund," a booklet just issued by the Social Security Administration, gives the latest available information on the financing of the Social Security program.

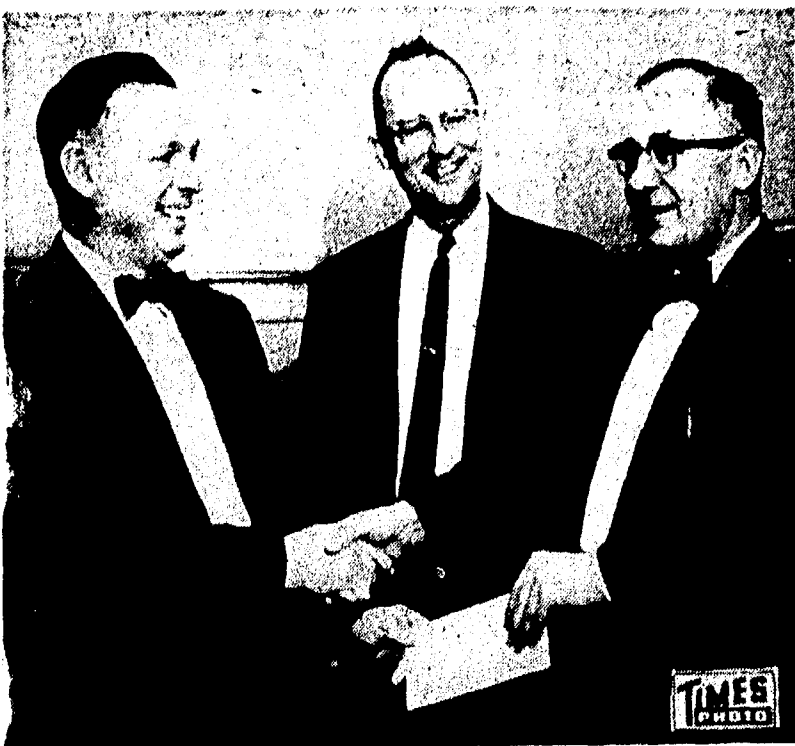

Free copies of the publication may be obtained at the Cumberland Social Security office, according to James A. Gwinn, district manager.

One section in the booklet describes the investment of the trust funds' assets. These investments are limited by law to securities insured or guaranteed by the Federal Government, and money in the trust funds can be used only for social security insurance purposes, the booklet points out.

Gwinn said that contributions, together with interest earnings of the trust funds' investments, are designed to maintain the program on a self-supporting basis without any subsidy from the general funds of the Treasury.

As of the end of last June, the total assets of the Old-Age and Survivors Insurance Trust Fund were $22.8 billion; the assets of the Disability Insurance Trust Fund were slightly in excess of $1 billion.

Local 568, Iron Workers Union, will meet today at 8 p. m. at the Labor Temple on South Liberty Street. The executive board will meet at 6 p. m.

Three Killed In Accident On Turnpike

BEDFORD, Pa. (UPI)—Three persons were killed today and three others were injured when an automobile rammed the rear of a tractor-trailer on the Pennsylvania Turnpike, nine miles west of here.

The victims were identified as Richard Boelio, 18, of Warren, Mich., a soldier stationed at Fort Lee, Va., and Franklin W. Martin Sr., 42, and his son, Franklin, 9, of Baltimore, Md.

Martin's wife, Delma, 35, his son, Wayne 15, and daughter, Tanya, 11, were listed in good condition at Bedford County Memorial Hospital.

The coroner's office said Boelio, believed to have been a hitchhiker, was driving the car and apparently fell asleep at the wheel. The truck driver, Walter Lampine, 40, Bridgman, Mich., escaped injury.

Man Receives 3-Year Term

Associate Judge Neil C. Fraley yesterday sentenced Robert Hoover Witte, 30-year-old former resident of Mt. Savage, to three years in the House of Correction after he pleaded guilty to burglary of a Corriganville service station.

Judge Fraley, who heard the case in Circuit Court here, recommended that Witte be considered for transfer to the Patuxent Institution, the state quarters for defective delinquents.

Witte was indicted in January on a charge of breaking into the Corriganville service station of Mathias John Madden last November 9 and stealing five re-capped tires, a half full box of cigars and $6.30 in small change. The total value of the loot was set at $48.05.

At the time of his indictment he was serving time at the Cambria County Jail in Ebensburg, Pa. on an automobile theft charge.

Assistant State's Attorney Donald W. Mason, who handled the prosecution of the case, said that Witte has a long record. He has been arrested and convicted 10 times since March 1949 and is currently on parole from the Maryland House of Correction. He drew a five-year term in Allegany County Circuit Court August 12, 1955, as a parole violator and was released only last fall.

Man Who Couldn't Afford $5 Fine Pays $40 Total

A local motorist who said he couldn't afford to pay $5 for five separate parking tickets ended up this morning paying a $40 fine in Police Court.

The man informed Magistrate Morris Baron he had received four of the five tickets while he was without employment, he could afford to pay parking fines. The City of Cumberland became $177 richer as a result of parking ticket cases.

Yesterday members of the Police Department issued warrants on persons who had failed to pay their tickets within the required period of time.

Court attaches noted that yesterday was the first time in several months that police were forced to issue warrants for parking tickets. After the new parking ordinance went into effect last November, most motorists paid the $1 fines. The man informed the judge he was without work several months and couldn't afford the $5.

ABL Will Be Affected By Navy Project

A Navy contract for architectural and engineering services at the Naval Propellant plant at Indian Head amounting to $1 million is indirectly related to the operations at the Allegany Ballistics Laboratory at nearby Pinto.

The contract calls for the preparation of designs and specifications for structures and equipment which will provide facilities for pilot line assembly and loading of an alternate double-base propellant motor for possible use in the Polaris ballistic missile.

This new double-base propellant motor is being developed at ABL, which is operated for the Navy's Bureau of Ordnance by Hercules Powder Company.

Some propellant ingredients required by ABL for this new motor are now being produced at the Indian Head facility.

Studies of production methods are now being undertaken prior to the actual pilot line operation. The construction project, which will be under the direction of the district public works officer, Potomac River Naval Command, has been set up under an initial expenditure of $1 million, which provides for the architectural and engineering work and the procurement of long-lead items.

Total cost of the program, including all equipment, is expected to be approximately $8 million.

Construction is expected to start during the latter part of 1959.

Baer Retires From Amcelle

A veteran Amcelle plant worker, C. W. "Solly" Baer, 45 North Mechanic Street, has retired after 30 years with the company.

Baer was supervisor of the plant's yard-traffic department since 1945. A luncheon was given for Baer at the plant cafeteria by management and supervisors of the Engineering Department.

R. W. Kirsch, maintenance superintendent, presented Baer with a gift on behalf of the group.

Employed at the Amcelle plant in 1929 as a laborer, he became a charge hand in 1934 and after holding the post of assistant supervisor for some time was promoted to the supervisor post.

Baer served in the House of Delegates from 1934 to 1939. He is a Republican and a past president of F. O. Eagles Aerie 245.

Prior to joining the Celanese firm he worked from 1910 to 1929 for the B&O Railroad as a brakeman and conductor.

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—A last-ditch effort is expected this weekend to avert a strike of 4,000 union employees of Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co. in West Virginia.

Negotiations resumed today following a recess last Friday between the utility and the Communications Workers of America, whose 15-month contract expired Feb. 13.

More of the 11 CWA locals were taking strike votes today. Spokesmen for the union said those who had balled so far had given authorization to call a strike when the negotiators felt it necessary.

A good deal of bartering was reported during Friday talks that started in the morning and lasted intermittently until late in the day.

URWA Will Elect Department Heads

Department chairmen and committeemen of Local 26, United Rubber Workers of America, AFL-CIO, will be nominated and elected at a meeting today at 7:30 p. m. at the union hall.

Members will also receive reports on seven grievances at the Kelly tire plant, according to A. E. Johnson, president.

County GOP Told Party Will Rebound

Sen. Keating Cites Lincoln's Victory After Loss In 1858

U. S. Senator Kenneth B. Keating of New York told 250 Allegany County Republicans last night at a Lincoln Day dinner that "as the Republican party of Lincoln's time did, we shall not despair but will surge back and prove that a '58 defeat contains the seeds of a '60 victory."

Sen. Keating predicted that the GOP will elect a President in the 1960 election.

Senator Keating, who with U. S. Senator J. Glenn Beall is a member of the organization he dubbed "The Republican Survivors Association," was introduced by former Rep. DeWitt S. Hyde at the rally in Ali Ghan Shrine Country Club.

J. Glenn Beall Jr., chairman of the Republican State Central Committee of Allegany County was toastmaster.

Hard Times Before

He said the party has had hard times as well as good ones but assured, "We're in the right party."

"If you have any doubts," he said, "just look at the Democrats. . . I don't look on the Democrats as a party, but rather a treaty of mutual non-aggression."

"It's hard," he said, "to tell whether they are a major party—or a minor riot."

Senator Keating recalled the sesquicentennial of Abraham Lincoln's birth and said Republicans can gain inspiration by looking back 100 years.

A century ago, he said, Lincoln was badly defeated (in 1858) when he ran against Stephen A. Douglas for the Senate.

Lincoln, he said, failed to win "just as we Republicans failed to win" majority support 100 years later in the 1958 election.

Lincoln refused to bow to adversity and spent 1859 spreading the message of the party and seeking support from previously hostile or politically inactive citizens.

Tough Course Ahead

"The very next year," Senator Keating said, "Lincoln and his Republican Party won a victory which was vital not only to the Party but to the preservation of the Union itself."

"This year and next," he said, "Republicans of all levels must strive . . . on the course Lincoln followed from a '58 defeat to a shining victory in '60."

He said the course will be a hard one and the party organization must be strengthened down to the smallest precinct.

The Republican Party, he said, has a great record in everything except selling its own accomplishments.

These critical times, he said, require calm, firm and stable handling that only the Republican Party is capable of providing.

Republicans said the recent recession was a temporary downturn which would be—and quickly was—reversed by more than 50 affirmative actions which our administration took," he said.

America Sold Short

GOP plans, he said, did not contain any of the opposition's plans "which would have heaped meaningless debt upon ourselves and our children."

He said Democrats last year "sold America short" and are still persisting in a course leading to more deficit spending and more ruinous inflation.

Beall paid a tribute to Edmund S. Burke and exhibited a plaque which will be presented to the GOP fund raiser at his home in gratitude to his efforts for the party.

Regrets were sent by Senator Beall, who is recuperating from a recent operation and from former Governor Theodore R. McKeldin and State Senator Charles M. See.

Workers Ready For Fund Drive

A house-to-house canvas will be made tomorrow for the 1959 Heart Fund, according to Mrs. William J. Gunter, chairman.

Mrs. Gunter said each captain will be in charge of a school area in Cumberland and the surrounding territories, and will be responsible for briefing and equipping the volunteers who will be collecting within that district.

Almost 1,000 volunteers hope to canvass every home in the community during the three-hour collection period, Mrs. Gunter added.

Lodge To Entertain Past Grands Group

Chapel Hill Lodge 53, IOOF, will be host to the Tri-State Past Grands Association meeting on Monday at 8 p. m. at the lodge hall, Virginia Avenue.

George McCracken is chairman of a committee which has arranged a program to be presented after the business session.

Russel O. Dolly, Chapel Hill Lodge, is president of the association, which includes IOOF lodges and Rebekah Lodges in the tri-state area.

Refreshments will be served by the social committee of the host lodge.

'Green Bag Blues' To Strike Many Residents Wednesday

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—Shortly after 2 p. m. next Wednesday a peculiar malady known as "green bag blues" will afflict a broad segment of the Maryland population.

The epidemic will be touched off when a large manila envelope is sent from the second floor of the State House to the Senate chamber on the first floor and is opened there.

Contained in the envelope will be the names of hundreds of persons nominated by the governor for jobs ranging from the $15,000-a-year chairmanship of the Parole and Probation Board to the virtually meaningless and profitless title of justice of the peace.

Many Disappointed

But for every one of these newly appointed officials there may be up to 15 disappointed candidates.

These are the victims of "green bag blues."

The name of their ailment is derived from "green bag," the phrase used by politicians to describe the list of appointments, in olden times actually delivered in a bag of green felt cloth.

Their symptoms may include a wide-eyed, awe-agape expression of disbelief, a heaviness in the general region of the heart, or a strange sensation midway between the shoulder blades, as if a sharp instrument had recently been planted there.

Some will attribute the onset of their affliction to the fact that their efforts in a recent campaign were not appreciated by members of their party's county committee, which recommends candidates for some jobs.

Others will blame their State senators, who have the power of confirmation or veto over local appointments and sometimes exercise it in advance of the green bag delivery.

In the past some have even blamed the governor.

One Staged Party

For example, there was—years ago, of course—the prominent attorney who had reason to believe he was about to be appointed a magistrate. The reason seemed even stronger when the governor, moments before sending the green bag down to the Senate, told him so.

Elated, he telephoned his wife the news, directed her to set up a party celebrating his honor that very evening, and left Annapolis for his Baltimore home.

The party was just beginning to hum when the first edition of the morning papers hit the street with what was generally accepted as a complete list of green bag appointments.

It was only after two frantic telephone calls—one to the newspaper and one to the governor—that the party host learned the omission of his name from the list was not a typographical error.

Then there were the two rival candidates who, during the last hectic night before completion of the green bag list, each sought a gubernatorial audience to press his case.

The first to be ushered into the awesome chamber secured what he considered a commitment and, flushed with his newly won victory, departed for home.

No Discouragement

The second, far from discouraged, calmly waited until all other candidates for all other posts had left, sat down with the chief executive over a spot of refreshment and toasted himself into the job.

Oldtimers around the State House also tell of the day a senator used an attorney general's ruling to sandbag a green bag hopeful.

The hopeful, a political foe of the senator, was a juvenile court judge. He also held a commission as justice of the peace.

He was quite relieved when the senator assured him he would raise no opposition to the judge's renomination by the governor. He also accepted the senator's suggestion that he simultaneously apply for renewal of his J-P commission, due to expire shortly after the legislative session.

True to his word, the senator uttered not a word against the judicial renomination.

But he vetoed the justice of the peace renewal, then pointed out an attorney general's ruling that the juvenile court judge must be picked from the list of newly approved justices of the peace.

The judge thereby became an ex-judge and a victim of senatorial rejectionism.

That's even worse than the green bag blues.

Weather Expert To Speak Before Chemical Society

The Western Maryland Section of the American Chemical Society will have as its speaker Thursday Paul A. Humphrey from the U. S. Weather Bureau. The meeting will be held at the Central YMCA in Cumberland at 8 p. m. A dinner will be served at 6:30 p. m.

His topic will be "The United States International Geophysical Year Meteorological Program and Some of Its Results." Attention will be given to the IGY geochemical programs and atmospheric gases such as ozone and carbon dioxide. Geographically, he will concentrate on the Weather Bureau Mauna Loa Observatory, Hawaii, and on the IGY Antarctic stations at Little America and at the South Pole.

Humphrey is a member of the Office of Meteorological Research, U. S. Weather Bureau, assisting with the operation of the USWB Mauna Loa Observatory, Hawaii, and in the organization and operation of a new Polar data.

Garrett Man Convicted On Arson Charge

Guilty Pleas Made In Other Cases Heard By Judge Fraley

OAKLAND — Virgil Raymond Miller, 27, was found guilty of arson by Circuit Judge Neil C. Fraley in one of four criminal cases heard this week in Oakland.

States Attorney Dwight Stover said Miller was accused of burning the dwelling owned by his grandmother, Vernie F. Gregory, who resided in the Red Oak section of Garrett County last December 12. Miller was found guilty by the court but sentence was delayed. Miller was remanded to custody of the sheriff.

The court had appointed Attorney Fred A. Fair to represent Miller in the case.

Pleas of guilty were entered by three persons in two other cases heard by Judge Fraley.

Charles Edward Williams, 30, originally of Parsons but who has been residing at Crellin, entered a plea of guilty to charges of breaking and entering the Table Rock Hotel last October. He was sentenced to one year in the House of Correction.

John Allen and William E. Clatterbuck, both 16, were sentenced to two years in The Maryland Reformatory for Males. The two, who had been staying at the forestry camp at New Germany, were accused of stealing the automobile of David C. Humbertson, Accident, a counselor at the camp.

Two more accused have asked for trials and these have been docketed for Wednesday at 10 a. m. Stover said. John Brown Arison is accused of passing five bad checks at Oakland business places; and Russell Edward Biggs is accused in two separate larceny counts. Both will be heard by the court.

Stover said the Garrett County Grand Jury is scheduled to convene March 2.

Annual Report Cites Success Of Local SA

The annual report of the advisory board of the Salvation Army was given at a dinner last night in Central YMCA.

The accomplishments during the year were highlighted by the purchase of 21 lots in Southview Addition for relocation of the South Cumberland Corps. Other accomplishments included the re-equipping of the woodworking shop at the Citadel through generosity of the Cumberland Lions Club, equipping and placing in operation the woodworking shop at the South Cumberland Corps through courtesy of the Lions Club, Optimist Club and the electrical workers union, the complete reorganization of the Advisory Board and purchase of a new station wagon for South Corps.

Projected plans for the Salvation Army are overshadowed by a four-fold capital campaign. Objectives of this campaign are erection of South Cumberland Corps and community center, liquidation of mortgage on the officer's quarters on Rose Hill Avenue, renovation of the North Mechanic Street property and erection of officers quarters for South Corps.

Other projected plans include paying off the mortgage on Southview Addition and Virginia Avenue properties and the sale of the property at 511 Virginia Avenue.

Senior Captain Daniel K. Biggs, in citing highlights from the annual report, said that he and Mrs. Biggs rounded out their sixth year in Cumberland on February 7.

To carry out the Salvation Army program last year in Allegany and Mineral counties and nearby Pennsylvania a total of $57,092.18 was spent.

Principal items under expenditures were $20,916.21 for service and activities, $7,535.99 for communications and transportation, $10,677.67 for building and equipment maintenance and $17,962.40 for salaries and wages.

Income in 1958 was topped by $39,529.81 received from the County United Fund. Other income included $8,027.59 from contributions, $4,594.74 of which came through the Christmas cheer campaign, and $9,499.75 from operating income.

Principal speaker at last night's civic dinner was Brigadier Carl E. Cone of Baltimore, who is commander of the Maryland and Northern West Virginia Division.

Cone installed the new officers and board members.

They are Robert Garner, chairman; Duard H. Little, vice chairman; Earl M. Nonnenmann, secretary, and J. Wallace Close, treasurer. Mr. Close was unable to attend but the others were present.

Ernest A. Lindsay and Glenn L. Morris were present to be installed as new members of the board. Other new members, unable to attend, are Woodrow W. Gurley, George R. Hughes Jr. and Louis V. Shinnamon.

Rev. William R. Snyder, pastor of St. Luke's Lutheran Church, gave the invocation and Dr. E. E. Miller, First Evangelical United Brethren Church, delivered the benediction.
